

Trolleys for rail lifeline

Description:

SECURILIGNE® is a rigid aluminium lifeline ideal for use on the underside, this lifeline can also be used for suspension work thanks to a trolley designed for this purpose. The SOMAIN are essential elements of a rail lifeline system. The application of the rail lifeline determines the trolley model to be used.

Details:

Material : Stainless steel

Finish: Raw or powder coated

Setup: Delivered with manuals and drawings available online at: <http://extranet.somain.fr>

Overhead application

REF : 100219

Stainless steel R10 trolley for underside application.

REF : 100220

Stainless steel R10S trolley for suspension and underside application.

Top-mounting and face-fixed application

REF : 100221

Stainless steel R12 trolley for ground and face-fixed application.