

Fall protection grid

Description:

The SECURITON® grille déportée protection grid is a means of collective protection against falls from height through rooflights. They are available self-supporting or to be fixed on the roof and are certified for a resistance up to 1200 joules according to the GIF test protocol (March 1997) and the CRAM MR72 document (September 1990).

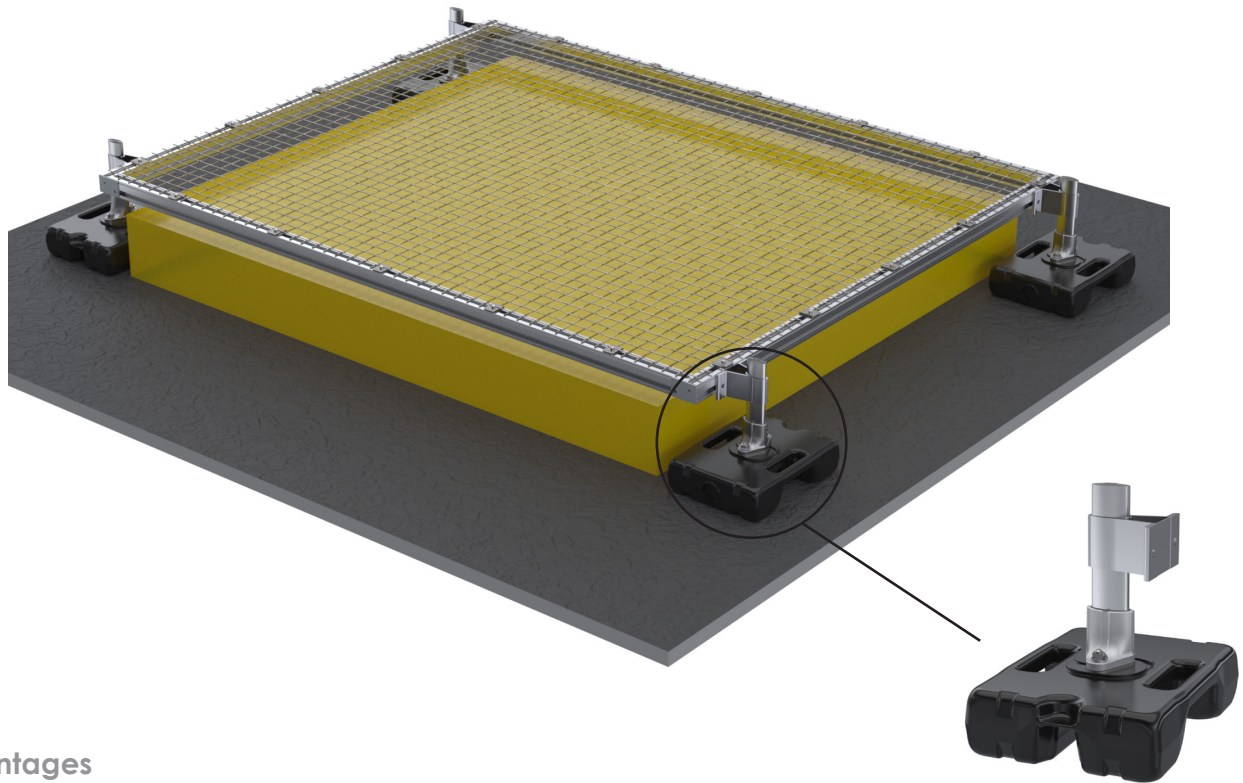

Details:

Material: Aluminum, zinc-plated steel

Finish: Raw

Setup: Delivered with manuals and drawings available online at: <http://extranet.somain.fr>

Skylight fall protection grid

✓ Advantages

SECURITON® grille déportée is light, easy and quick to install. The grid is made of galvanized steel.

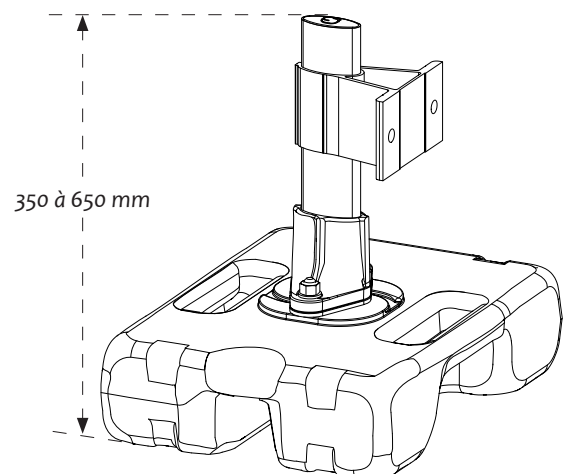

This self-supporting grille is a custom-made device for securing skylights of all sizes.

⋮ Options

SECURITON® grille déportée is proposed by default with weighted blocks. Also available with mounting plates on steel decks

i Additional information

The feet are made to measure with a height between: 350 mm and 600 mm.

Translucent fall protection grid

Description:

The SECURITON® grille à plat is a means of collective protection against falls from height through translucent roofs.

Adapted to steel and fibrocement roofs, these grids are available self-supporting or to be fixed to the roof.

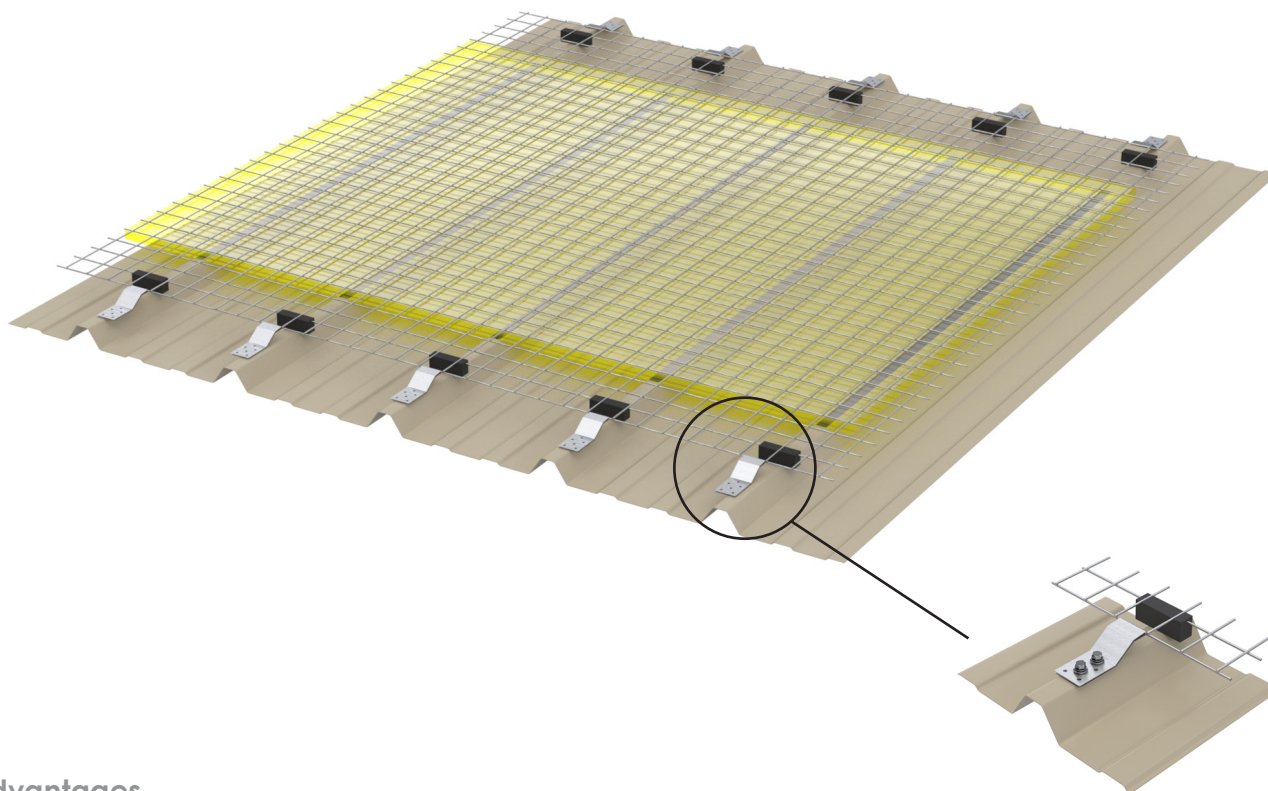

They are certified for a resistance to 1200 joules according to the GIF test protocol (March 1997) and the CRAM MR72 document (September 1990).

Details:

Material: Aluminum, zinc-plated steel

Finish: Raw

Setup: Delivered with manuals and drawings available online at: <http://extranet.somain.fr>

✓ Advantages

SECURITON® grille à plat is light, easy and quick to install. The grid is made of galvanized steel.

This flat grid is a custom-made device for securing skylights of any size.

⋮ Options

SECURITON® grille à plat is offered by default with steel fasteners. Also available with fasteners on fibro.

i Additional information

2 self-drilling screws M6x25 stainless steel + sealing strip.

